

THE OFFICIAL NEWSMAGAZINE OF THE AMERICAN ACADEMY OF PEDIATRICS

AAP News

News Articles, Advocacy

Dr. Goza voted AAP president-elect; bylaw changes approved

Sara "Sally" H. Goza, M.D., FAAP, of Fayetteville, Ga., has been voted AAP president-elect. She ran against George C. Phillips, M.D., M.B.A., FAAP, of Overland Park, Kan.

Dr. Goza will take over as president on Jan. 1, 2020, following Kyle Yasuda, M.D., FAAP, of Seattle, who will serve as president in 2019. To read about Dr. Goza's background, visit <http://bit.ly/2SrJk46>.

Changes to the AAP bylaws were approved by 95.3% of members. The changes aim to diversify representation on the Board of Directors beyond geographic districts.

Results for additional AAP national offices, which take effect Jan. 1, are below. For complete coverage, see the January issue of AAP News.

District I

Vice Chairperson

Patricia J. Flanagan, M.D., FAAP (re-elected)

National Nominating Committee Representative

Janice L. Pelletier, M.D., FAAP

District III

Chairperson

Margaret "Meg" C. Fisher, M.D., FAAP

District IV

National Nominating Committee Representative

Kimberly A. Boland, M.D., FAAP

THE OFFICIAL NEWSMAGAZINE OF THE AMERICAN ACADEMY OF PEDIATRICS

AAP News

News Articles, Advocacy

District VI

Chairperson

Dennis M. Cooley, M.D., FAAP

Vice Chairperson

Claudia K. Preuschoff, M.D., FAAP (re-elected)

District VII

National Nominating Committee Representative

Eve Switzer, M.D., FAAP

District IX

Chairperson

Yasuko Fukuda, M.D., FAAP

Vice Chairperson

Paula J. Whiteman, M.D., FACEP, FAAP

There were no vacancies in Districts II, V, VIII or X.

Related Content

- 2018 AAP Election Guide