Congressional staff, health experts discuss access laws
Exploring the options to improve children's access to health care was the theme when congressional staff members convened in Baltimore for the first ever AAP health policy retreat. ................................................................. 1

Candidates address national health policy, manpower
The candidates for 1990-91 AAP president, Antonnette Eaton, M.D., and Arthur Maron, M.D., respond to questions posed by the National Nominating Committee. .................. 1

AMA delegates support AAP resolutions, RBRRS study
Members of the AMA House of Delegates acted on three AAP resolutions during their recent Interim Meeting — a conference that was dominated by debate about the Harvard Resource-Based Relative Value Scale study. ........................................... 2

Survey dispels assumption about membership
Results of a survey conducted in AAP District IV show that 81 percent of board-certified academicians there are AAP members — a finding that disputes a commonly held notion among officials that the Academy attracts a much larger percentage of practitioners than academicians. ........ 3

Center resumes annual survey of office visits
About 2,500 physicians will be contacted in the next few months and asked to participate in the National Ambulatory Medical Care Survey. .................................................. 3

Avoiding bad calls
An expert in "telephone medicine" will discuss the medical liability implications of telephone triage at the AAP Spring Session. ............................................................................. 6

Manual offers triage guidelines
It is possible to formulate specific guidelines for telephone triage, said Harvey Katz, M.D., FAAP, an expert in "telephone medicine." The AAP Management of Pediatric Practice manual offers these guidelines. ................................................................. 5

Correction
A December 1988 AAP News article about computer discounts available to AAP members through the Sears Business Systems Center listed an incorrect telephone number. .............................................. 5

Erratum
Corrections in ICD-9-CM Codes for Pediatricians placards. .............................................................. 6

Indian edition
A special edition of the AAP journal Pediatrics will be published in India. .............................................. 9

Spring Session workshop will focus on communications skills
AAP members can learn how to communicate better with reporters and patients during a six-hour workshop at the AAP Spring Session in Orlando. ........................................... 11

Report outlines media coverage
AAP members will find copies of newspaper articles and television and radio news transcripts in the new AAP News Media Report available from the AAP Division of Communications. ................................................................. 11

Campaign focuses on bike safety
The National Safe Kids Campaign is sponsoring "Community Safe Kids Week" from May 15-21 to increase bike helmet and safety awareness. .................................................. 11

Sills to deliver keynote speech
Opera star and child health advocate Beverly Sils will deliver the keynote address at the 1989 AAP Spring Session in Orlando. .................................................................................. 12

Emergency, resuscitation training offered during Spring Session
Members attending the 1989 AAP Spring Session may participate in any of four neonatal resuscitation and pediatric NAP NAP meeting will focus on future families ............ 12

Committee plans breakfast meeting .............. 12

Neonatology, infectious disease experts among CME faculty .................................................. 13

Back In Las Vegas sunshine .................. 13

James receives award for perinatal research ......... 15

Maine potatoes: 'We're much maltreated'
The Maine Department of Agriculture thinks an AAP public service announcement that advises children to avoid becoming "couch potatoes" is a half-baked idea. ........ 15

WASHINGTON UPDATE

INSIGHT

AAP President Donald Schiff, M.D., discusses the gap in access to medical care and the AAP campaign to gain medical care for all U.S. children. ................................. 3

Chapter Newsletter, Objectives, Announcements, Minutes, PSA California: Tobacco tax passes; New chapter officers .................................................. 4

FOCUS ON PRACTICE

Telephone medicine expert Harvey Katz M.D., FAAP, offers suggestions on improving telephone triage. .................................................. 5

HEALTH ALERT

Recalls. ATVs sold despite ruling. Measles down. Ray's Syndrome down. Say no, but say more. Playground hazards .................................................. 6

FEELINGS IN THE NEWS .............. 15

Point of View
1981-82 AAP President Glenn Austin, M.D., comments on the content of the Health Policy Agenda basic benefits package. .................................................. 16

SECOND OPINIONS

HIV and artificial feeding. Infant formula marketing: Strike three? Addictive illness: The pediatrician's role. .................................................. 17

DEPARTMENTS

Policy Statement: Hypoallergenic Infant Formulas .................................................. 7

Policy Statement: Follow-Up or Weaning Formulas .................................................. 7

Membership Applicant List .................................................. 18

Course Calendar .................................................. 19

Classified Ads .................................................. 19

FEBRUARY 1989

AAP NEWS

Published Monthly

American Academy of Pediatrics
P.O. Box 927
Elk Grove Village, IL 60009-0927

Vol. 5 No. 2 February 1989

Non-Profit Org.
U.S. Postage
PAID
Chicago, IL
Permit 720

Telephone management. Page 5.

Copyright © 1988 by the American Academy of Pediatrics, an organization of 37,000 pediatricians dedicated to the health, safety and well-being of infants, children, adolescents and young adults. Views expressed in AAP News are not necessarily endorsed by the Academy. Contact the Academy at 141 Northwest Point Blvd., Elk Grove Village, IL 60007; (800) 433-4046. In Illinois, (800) 421-0059.

Election Information Inside.

11