New Applicants

Dear Academy Fellow:

In order to fulfill the admission requirements of AAP News, you are requested to: 1) carefully review the following list of new applicants for Academy membership and 2) relay your reactions directly to your District Chairperson, whose name and address is at the end of this list.

In submitting these names of board-certified pediatricians to you, it is understood that academic and pediatric credentials are not in question. Comments are requested concerning possible legal and/or ethical situations of which you might have personal knowledge.

Send any comments on the following list of new applicants to your District Chairperson by April 15.

When you need to contact pediatricians, contact AAP News. Each month, 49,000 pediatricians, third-year pediatric residents and other subscribers turn to AAP News for child health information they cannot get elsewhere. With a classified ad, you can speak directly to those readers.

Rates:
The one-time cost for placing a classified ad is $120 for 30 or fewer words and $1.50 for each additional word. A $20 discount per month is allowed for ads that are published in three or more consecutive issues. The minimum charge per issue is $80.

Classifications: Classified ads are accepted under Business Services, General Announcements, Medical Meetings, Positions Wanted, Practices Available, and Residences/Fellowships Available. Contact AAP News for display classified ads and rates.

Blind Box Returns: Available for a $25 service charge per ad insertion. To reply to a box number, send your response to: Box Number, AAP News, Classified Ads, P.O. Box 927, Elk Grove Village, IL 60009-0927.

Advertising policy: Although the Academy believes these classified ads are from reputable sources, the Academy does not investigate the offers made and assumes no responsibility concerning them.

Frequently, it is necessary to modify the wording of classified ads. These changes are generally made in compliance with the regulations of various federal and/or state commissions against discrimination or because they might be interpreted as being unlawful or in conflict with professional standards of medical practice.

Advertisements for employment containing specifications as to race, creed, color, age, religion, sex, ethnic origin, or national origin may be unlawful and professionally improper. Accordingly, discriminatory wording is not acceptable in AAP News.

Other phrases for publication in various advertising classifications might be interpreted as being unlawful or in conflict with professional standards of medical practice. Improper language could include:

- Complete list of patients' records for sale.
- The offer of rebates or 'kickbacks'; wording that could be interpreted as derogatory or defamatory to other physicians; the misrepresentation of skills or job requirements.

These advertising modifications are made to maintain a classified advertising section that is professionally responsible, lawful, scientific and free of discrimination.

National Conference on Rural Health
The National Rural Health Association (NRHA) will hold its 17th annual national conference on rural health, "Building Bridges—Leading the Way," May 22-26, 1994, at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in San Francisco. The American Academy of Pediatrics is a co-sponsor. The conference will focus on how rural health care organizations, facilities and providers can work together in building alliances, networks and coalitions. It also will explore how these bridges benefit the providers and health workers, as well as those receiving care. The conference is designed to:
- develop practical skills and techniques in health services administration, organization and research;
- present practical clinical sessions of how to rural health providers;
- showcase current policy issues affecting rural health services; and
- report the results of research applicable to rural health services administrators and providers.

The conference program also includes exhibits and a national awards presentation recognizing outstanding contributions of rural health care providers, practitioners, programs, research and education.

To receive registration information, contact the NRHA National Service Center at (816) 756-3140.

ATTENTION DISORDERS

Attention Disorders with or without Hyperactivity developed by Anita Oliveau, M.Ed., Esther S. Adler, M.D., Robert Spiker, Ph.D.

Accurate diagnosis of ADHD is often difficult because approximately 80% of ADHD children behave well in the doctor’s office. For this reason, physicians rely heavily on feedback from classroom teachers in diagnosing, medicating, and monitoring children with attention disorders.

ACTERS is a standardized teacher rating form for grades K-8 that objectively measures four separate characteristics: Attention, Hyperactivity, Social Skills, and Oppositional Behavior. The reliability, validity, and utility of ACTERS have been repeatedly demonstrated in published studies and clinical trials throughout its 20-year research history. Teachers respond to the 24 items that describe classroom behavior. These ratings are summed and transferred to the Profile Form where norm comparisons are read directly.
