CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING POLICY

When you need to contact pediatricians, contact AAP News. Each month more than 52,000 pediatricians, third-year pediatric residents and other subscribers turn to AAP News for child health information they cannot get elsewhere. With a classified ad, you can speak directly to those readers.

Although the Academy believes these classified ads are from reputable sources, the Academy does not investigate the offers made and assumes no responsibility concerning them.

Occasionally, it is necessary to modify the wording of classified ads. These changes are made in compliance with the regulations of various federal and state commissions against discrimination or because they might be interpreted as being unlawful or in conflict with accepted professional standards of medical practice.

These advertising modifications are made to maintain a classified section that is professionally responsible, lawful, scientific and free of discrimination.

Publication of an advertisement in AAP News neither constitutes nor implies a guarantee or endorsement by AAP News or the American Academy of Pediatrics of the product or service advertised or of the claims made for the product or service by the advertiser.
