

HEALTH ALERTS

The U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) has announced recalls of the following products. Consumers should stop using recalled product unless otherwise instructed.

Children's metal jewelry

Two companies are recalling children's toy jewelry because they contain high levels of lead, which can be toxic if ingested by young children.

Product: Children's necklaces, bracelets and rings

Units: About 200,000

Importer: Spandrel Sales and Marketing Inc., of Tempe, Ariz.

Description: Pendants that hang from silver-colored bracelet and necklace chains, and silver-colored rings with a charm on top are involved. Charm shapes include silver-colored crosses, suns, moons, stars, butterflies, cupids, angels, keys, elephants, hands, cell phones, fish and shoes.

Sold at: Vending machines in malls, discount, department and grocery stores nationwide from February through March 2007 for 25 cents.

Remedy: Throw items away.

Contact: Call 877-213-0500 or visit www.ssmvending.com.

Product: Children's metal jewelry

Units: About 103,000

Distributor/retailer: Tween Brands Inc., of New Albany, Ohio

Description: Some of the recalled necklaces, bracelets, earrings and charms are metallic, multicolored and have "High School Musical" or pictures of "High School Musical" actors printed on them. Others have frogs, hearts, stars, dogs with bones, flowers and monkeys that hang from silver, black or brown chains or cords.

Sold at: Limited Too and Justice retail stores nationwide, the Limited Too catalog and at www.limitedtoo.com from September 2005 through May 2007 for $2 to $10.

Remedy: Return recalled jewelry to any Limited Too or Justice store for a refund and a coupon for a 15% discount off a future purchase.

Contact: Call 800-934-4497 or visit www.limitedtoo.com or www.justicejustforgirls.com

