Future of Pediatrics features more than 50 CME sessions

Revisit childhood at Disneyland Resort and learn about recent advances in medicine at the Future of Pediatrics conference in Anaheim, Calif.

The four-day conference will be hosted at the Anaheim Marriott Hotel Feb. 27-March 1.

As part of the Academy's continuing medical education programs, the Future of Pediatrics: Quality Care for All Children will offer more than 50 sessions and panel discussions on topics ranging from talking to teens about sensitive issues to managing your practice effectively.

Featured speakers include AAP President David T. Tayloe Jr., M.D., FAAP, and AAP Immediate Past President Renée R. Jenkins, M.D., FAAP.

Session highlights include:

- Adolescent Sexuality: Sex Talks for Teens, with Cynthia Mears, D.O., FAAP, associate professor of pediatrics, Feinberg School of Medicine, Northwestern University, Chicago;
- Building Resilience in Children and Adolescents, with Kenneth Ginsburg, M.D., M.S.Ed., FAAP, associate professor of pediatrics, University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine, Philadelphia;
- Legal Bulletproofing of Your Practice, with Herschel Lessin, M.D., FAAP, vice president, The Children's Medical Group, Poughkeepsie, N.Y.;
- Emerging Vaccines, with Denise Bratcher, D.O., FAAP, associate professor of pediatrics, Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn.;
- Autism — Practical Approaches to Management in the Medical Home, with Heidi Feldman, M.D., Ph.D., FAAP, FAAD, professor of pediatrics and medicine (dermatology), University of California San Diego School of Medicine;

- "That IS My Department!": How Collaborating with Health Departments Can Improve Quality and Outcomes, with Lauren A. Smith, M.D., M.P.H., associate professor of pediatrics, Boston University School of Medicine; and
- Moving on from Pediatric to Adult Health Care for Youth with Special Health Care Needs: What a Health Care Professional Can Do, with Patience White, M.D., M.A., FAAP, professor of pediatrics and medicine, George Washington University School of Medicine and Health Sciences, Washington, D.C.

Participants can earn a maximum of 18 AMA PRA Category 1 credits for this conference. The American College of Osteopathic Pediatricians, accredited by the American Osteopathic Association (AOA), will offer up to 18 credits of AOA Category 1-A credits if osteopathic physicians attest that they attended 10 hours presented by osteopathic faculty.
