Earn CME while spending a weekend in ‘paradise’

What better chance to earn continuing medical education than during a tropical trip to Paradise Island, The Bahamas, Feb. 25-27.

Join colleagues for a Practical Pediatrics Course and spend time in the sun to chase away the winter blahs.

Designed for pediatricians, nurse practitioners and other allied health professionals, the course features sessions in dermatology, emergency medicine, general pediatrics, hematology/oncology, infectious diseases and pulmonology.

Course highlights and faculty include:

- “Face Up to Acne” and “Pediatric Dermatology Potpourri,” with Fred E. Ghali, M.D., FAAD, FAAP, clinical assistant professor of dermatology at University of Texas Southwestern Medical School, Dallas;
- “Minor Procedures in the Pediatric Office” and “Syncope in Children,” with Steven M. Selbst, M.D., FACEP, FAAP, professor of pediatrics at Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia;
- “But I’m Not Tired! Dealing with Childhood Sleep Problems” and “SIDS, SUIDs and ALTEs: True, True and Unrelated,” with Carol D. Berkowitz, M.D., FACEP, FAAP, professor of clinical pediatrics at Harbor-UCLA Medical Center, David Geffen School of Medicine at UCLA, Torrance, Calif.;

- “Guidelines for Management of Sickle Cell Disease in Children” and “Supporting the Inherited Bleeding Disorders Patient in Your Practice,” with Catherine S. Manno, M.D., FAAP, Pat and E. John Rosenwald professor and chair of pediatrics at New York University School of Medicine;
- “When There’s MRSA in the Bursa: What’s New with Staph aureus?” and “Hot Topics in Pediatric Infectious Diseases,” with Jeffrey R. Starke, M.D., FAAP, professor of pediatrics at Baylor College of Medicine, Houston; and
- “A Practical Approach to the Diagnosis and Management of Chronic Cough” and “Case Based Approach to Pulmonary Diagnostic Challenges,” with Veda L. Ackerman, M.D., FAAP, associate professor of pediatrics at Indiana University School of Medicine’s Riley Hospital for Children, Indianapolis.

Participants can earn up to 17.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits. Be sure to register before Jan. 28 to receive early bird rates.
