Strollers

Units: About 2,300

Distributor: Lan Enterprises LLC, of Hillsboro, Ore.

Hazard: The opening between the armrest bar/snack tray and seat bottom of the stroller can allow an infant's body to pass through and become trapped at the neck, posing a strangulation hazard when not harnessed.

Description: Recalled are Zooper strollers sold with an optional snack tray and armrest bar. Four models are recalled: Everyday Tango (SL808G 022009-060510), Everyday Twist (BU822B 060510), Everyday Waltz (SL800J 022009-060510) and Elite Flamenco (SL350B 071509).

Sold at: Juvenile product and mass merchandise stores and online, including at Amazon.com, Costco.com and Dmartstores.com from May 2009 to May 2011 for $200 to $800.

Remedy: Remove the armrest bar and snack tray and contact Zooper USA for a replacement armrest bar and repair kit.
