The U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) has announced the recall of the following products. Consumers should stop using recalled products unless otherwise instructed. Consumers can submit reports of harm to CPSC's new searchable online product safety database at www.SaferProducts.gov. A searchable food and medical product recall database is available at www.fda.gov/Safety/Recalls/default.htm.

Bunk beds

Units: About 390

Importer: PBteen, a division of Williams-Sonoma Inc., of San Francisco

Hazard: The front upper horizontal panel on the bunk beds can crack or break, posing a risk of injury to the consumer.

Description: Wooden bunk beds with bead board paneling have an upper bunk that is accessible by a four-step ladder. Upper bunks are designed for a twin mattress and the lower bunks for a full-size mattress. Beds were sold in white, chestnut, dark espresso and honey, and have storage cubbies below the lower bunk.

Sold at: PBteen.com and the PBteen catalog nationwide from January 2008 to February 2012 for $1,700 to $2,000.

Remedy: Contact PBteen to receive a free, in-home installation of a replacement panel.
