

CME

Mountain lovers, head to Pacific Northwest for CME

The Academy is offering two opportunities to explore the beauty of the Pacific Northwest while earning continuing medical education credit. PREP The Course will be held June 8-12 at the Marriott Portland Downtown Waterfront in Portland, Ore. Practical Pediatrics will be held June 21-23 at Beaver Run Resort and Conference Center in Breckenridge, Colo.

In Portland, don't miss the parks and gardens, myriad coffee houses, tax-free shopping and plenty of rainy day activities. PREP the Course, Portland offers an intensive review and update of pediatrics. Content is delivered as case-based sessions, hot topics and visual diagnosis components related to the latest information on clinical practice.

Highlights include:

- "Nevi and Sun Protection," with Fred E. Ghali, M.D., FAAP;
- "Interpreting Office Spirometry: What Do All Those Curves and Numbers Mean Anyway?" with John M. Kelso, M.D., FAAP;
- "Probiotic Use in Children: Separating Fact from Fiction," with Ivor D. Hill, M.B., Ch.B., M.D., FAAP;
- "Who Wants To Be a Coding Millionaire?!" with Richard H. Tuck, M.D., FAAP;
- "Strength Training in Children: Is It Safe, Is It Effective, and Will It Improve Performance?" with Teri McCambridge, M.D., FAAP; and
- "The Cardiac Component of the Sports Exam," with Tracey Rous Hoke, M.D., Sc.M., FAAP.

Practical Pediatrics Breckenridge combines lectures, interactive seminars and question-and-answer sessions. Breckenridge isn't just for skiing. Explore the historic mining town, or try hiking, horseback riding, biking, boating, whitewater rafting, rock climbing, fly fishing and train rides.

Highlights include:

- "Sports Medicine," with Andrew J.M. Gregory, M.D., FACS, FAAP;
- "Allergy and Immunology," with Anne Bridges Yates, M.D., FAAP;
- "Fetus and Newborn," with Jayant Pandurang Shenai, M.D., FAAP;
- "Genetics," with Joan Marilyn Stoler, M.D., FAAP;
- "Respiratory Disorders," with Lawrence Rhein, M.D., FAAP;
- "Rheumatology," with Mara Becker, M.D., MSCE, FAAP;
