The U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) has announced the recall of the following products. Consumers should stop using recalled products unless otherwise instructed. Consumers can submit reports of harm to CPSC's new searchable online product safety database at www.SaferProducts.gov. A searchable food and medical product recall database is available at www.fda.gov/Safety/Recalls/default.htm.

High chairs

Units: About 1,100

Hazard: A child who is not harnessed can pass through the front opening between the tray and seat bottom of the high chair, become trapped at the neck and strangle.

Description: This recall includes Eat model high chairs in red, black, green, purple, navy, orange and brown. Model number BH2104 is on a label on the back of the high chair. The word "babyhome" is printed on one leg of the chair, and the word "eat" is printed on the opposite leg. The high chairs have a nylon fabric seat with a plastic tray and metal frame. Recalled are lot numbers BH00301/01-2012, BH00303/07-2012, BH00304/09-2012 and BH00304/09-2012. The lot numbers are on a sticker affixed to the bottom of the footrest.

Sold at: Juvenile product stores nationwide, including USA Baby, Magic Beans and RC Willey, and at Amazon.com, Babiesrus.com and Diapers.com from March 2012 through February 2013 for about $150.

Remedy: Contact BabyHome USA for a repair kit.
