

CME

Earn CME while exploring the nation's capital

Here's your chance to rub elbows with the biggest movers and shakers in the political world, but also those engaged and invested in pediatrics. Attend Practical Pediatrics in Washington, D.C., Aug. 30 to Sept. 1, where you can participate in interactive seminars, question-and-answer sessions and traditional lectures, all geared toward health professionals caring for children.

Practical Pediatrics in D.C focuses on Adolescent Health, Developmental/Behavioral Pediatrics, Emergency Medicine, Endocrinology, Infectious Diseases and Orthopedics. Participants also are invited to attend a concurrent seminar, for which topics include hormonal contraceptives, autism and infectious diseases.

Aside from continuing your medical education, make time to visit Washington, D.C.'s famous museums and monuments. The backdrop of Washington, D.C. — such a historic yet cutting-edge city — is the perfect place to learn, connect with others in your field and explore.

Course highlights and faculty include:

- “Assessment of the Limping Child” and “Overuse Injuries and Return to Play,” with William A. Phillips, M.D., FAAP;
- “Child Abuse and Conditions Mistaken of Child Abuse” and “Life-threatening Dermatological Emergencies,” with Binita R. Shah, M.D., FAAP;
- “How to Make a Medical Home for Children with Developmental Disabilities” and “Psychopharmacology: Starting, Stopping and Everything in Between,” with Alison D. Schonwald, M.D., FAAP;
- “Lumpy Bumpy Neck: Cervical Lymphadenitis Diagnosis and Treatment” and “Vaccines and the Pediatric Caregiver: Safety, Parental Hesitancy or Refusal and Ethical Concerns,” with Morven Spencer Edwards, M.D., FAAP;

- “Polycystic Ovary Syndrome: Diagnosis and Management Basics,” with Cynthia M. Holland-Hall, M.D., M.P.H., FAAP; and
- “Treatment of Childhood Obesity: Lifestyle, Drugs, Surgery,” with Robert Howard Lustig, M.D.

Concurrent offerings include:

- “What Is It? Challenges in Infectious Diseases,” with Morven Spencer Edwards, M.D., FAAP;
- “Hormonal Contraceptives: Birth Control and Beyond,” with Cynthia M. Holland-Hall, M.D., M.P.H., FAAP;
