AAP raps Gerber for delivering formula samples
AAP officials are rapping the Gerber Product Company for delivering infant formula samples and discount coupons to new mothers homes starting three weeks postpartum.  ...........................................1

Cross-national comparisons fuel U.S. health care debate
Child health policy leaders from France, England, Norway, Canada and the Netherlands examined the failures and successes of child health care at the recent conference on Cross-National Comparisons of Child Health. There presented their findings to a U.S. House committee...........................................1

U.S. House bill would provide universal health insurance
AAP President Birt Harvey, M.D., recently testified in support of a U.S. House bill designed to provide universal health coverage for all U.S. children and pregnant women. ...........................................2

Baby's death caused mom to leave 'cult'
Most people can't imagine the tremendous pain and frustration a parent feels when forced to stand by helplessly as a child lies dying, but Joni Cooke-Eddy knows the feeling. She knows it better than anyone should...........................................3

Ryan White's pediatricians reflect on landmark case
Following Ryan White's death, just as politicians were playing up the great strides the U.S. has taken toward AIDS education over the past decade, a 5-year-old Chicago boy and his family ironically found themselves fighting the same battle White faced nearly six years ago ...........................................4

World View: Health care in other countries
An overview of child health care in France, Canada, England, the Netherlands and Norway .........................6

Speaking Out: A few words on child health
Child health experts from around the world discuss health care in their countries ....................................7

Call to action
Calling the 1980s a decade of neglect, Julius Richmond, M.D., FAAP, urged participants at the Conference on Cross-National Comparisons of Child Health to make the 1990s "the decade of the child." For more detail, see Dr. Richmond's Point of View essay on p. 17 ...........................................8

Further study
Duane Alexander, M.D., recently called for more research to further expand what U.S. health care officials know about treating child health ailments ...8

Data bank identifies 'scoundrels' of medical field
William O. Robertson, M.D., FAAP, discusses the pros and cons of the National Practitioner Data Bank. In 'Risky Business' ...........................................15

Members can hook up to 'waiting-room TV'
Starting in June, AAP members can subscribe to Healthlink Television, a free "waiting room television" service that features health information on laser video discs. .................................................18

Register now for conference
The Academy is one of 20 national organizations co-sponsoring the 1990 National Conference to Abolish Corporal Punishment in Schools, scheduled for July in Little Rock, Ark. ...........................................19

AMA holding June conference on early care of AIDS-HIV
The Academy is co-sponsoring an AMA conference on the counselling, testing and early care of AIDS-HIV.................................................................19

May 21-28 is designated for 'buckling up'
The Academy plans to release two safety fact kits in support of 'Buckle Up America! Week,' scheduled for May 21-28 ...........................................19

Instruction sheets available
Members can now receive AAP medication instruction sheets for their patients. The sheets contain general information and safety measures for more than a dozen medications commonly prescribed by pediatricians...........................................19

Guide available
The new edition of the AAP Policy Reference Guide is available .................................................................21

COLUMNS

Washington Update
Child care victory ... Vaccine funding ... Alcohol warnings .................................................................2

Chapter Newsline
South Dakota the first to repeal religious exemption clauses ... Hawaii: Healthy Start ... Arizona: Pool ordinance passes ... Florida: CHAA study .............................................3

Focus on Practice
Incarcerated youth find comfort in caring physicians, nurses .................................................................5

Point of View
Dr. Richmond: Making the nineties the 'decade of the child' .................................................................17

DEPARTMENTS

Policy Statement: Ride-on Mower Injuries in Children .................................................................9

Policy Statement: Contraception and Adolescents .................................................................10

Health Alert .................................................................16

Member applicant list .................................................................20

Classified ads .................................................................22

AAP News
PUBLISHED MONTHLY
American Academy of Pediatrics
count coupons to new mothers homes starting three weeks postpartum .................................1

AAP President
Birt Harvey, M.D.
Executive Director
James Strain, M.D.
Director
Department of Communications
Linda Martin
Director
Division of Member Communications
Michael Burke
Editor
Elizabeth Oplatek
Staff Writer
Debra Fleischman
Chapter Correspondent
Mike Lynch
Washington Correspondents
Lisa Tate
Patricia Shea
Editorial Assistants
Pamela Mallik
Karen Wozniowicz
Elizabeth Schull

Copyright © 1990 by the American Academy of Pediatrics, an organization of 38,000 pediatricians dedicated to the health, safety and well-being of infants, children, adolescents and young adults. Views expressed in AAP News are not necessarily endorsed by the Academy. Contact the Academy at PO. Box 927, 141 Northwest Road Blvd., Elk Grove Village, IL 60009. (800) 433-4016. In Illinois, (800) 421-0589.

Non-Profit Org.
U.S. Postage
PAID
Chicago, IL
Permit 720

Vol. 6 No. 5
May 1990

AAP News
PUBLISHED MONTHLY
American Academy of Pediatrics
count coupons to new mothers homes starting three weeks postpartum .................................1

AAP President
Birt Harvey, M.D.
Executive Director
James Strain, M.D.
Director
Department of Communications
Linda Martin
Director
Division of Member Communications
Michael Burke
Editor
Elizabeth Oplatek
Staff Writer
Debra Fleischman
Chapter Correspondent
Mike Lynch
Washington Correspondents
Lisa Tate
Patricia Shea
Editorial Assistants
Pamela Mallik
Karen Wozniowicz
Elizabeth Schull

Copyright © 1990 by the American Academy of Pediatrics, an organization of 38,000 pediatricians dedicated to the health, safety and well-being of infants, children, adolescents and young adults. Views expressed in AAP News are not necessarily endorsed by the Academy. Contact the Academy at PO. Box 927, 141 Northwest Road Blvd., Elk Grove Village, IL 60009. (800) 433-4016. In Illinois, (800) 421-0589.

Non-Profit Org.
U.S. Postage
PAID
Chicago, IL
Permit 720

Vol. 6 No. 5
May 1990