AAC News
August 1991

ARTICLES
CDC cautions HIV-positive health-care workers 1
Women say fewer obstacles exist in pediatrics 1
AAP officials answer access proposal questions 2
Erratum and Correction 3
Commission on children proposes national agenda 5
Organizations honor women in medicine 7
AAP Chapter Forum considers 73 resolutions 8
Chapter leaders urge action on resolutions 9
Robert Heavenrich dies 17
AAP members donate to annuity fund 19
New Orleans offers tours of historic districts 20
Courses, workshops highlight Annual Meeting 21
AAP section publishes newsletter 22
Members can attend CME course in Williamsburg 23

COLUMNS
Washington Update 2
Chapter Newsline 3
Health Briefs 4
Risky Business 13
Point of View: Hospitals provide care to uninsured children 13
Point of View: AMA delegates study vaccine law, AIDS testing 14
Point of View: Political turbulence threatens summit goals 15
Fellows in the News 17
Second Opinions 18

DEPARTMENTS
Policy Statement: Marijuana: A Continuing Concern for Pediatricians 16
Health Alert 19
Course Calendar 22
New Applicants 24
Classified Ads 25

Rochelle Morrow holds her daughter, 2-month-old LaShelle. LaShelle received her vaccinations at a Chicago clinic. See the AAP News Special Section: The U.S. Immunization Crisis, inside.