Dr. Beers voted AAP president-elect

Lee Savio Beers, M.D., FAAP, of Washington, D.C., has been voted AAP president-elect. She ran against Pamela K. Shaw, M.D., FAAP, of Kansas City, Kan.

Dr. Beers will take over as president on Jan. 1, 2021, following Sara "Sally" H. Goza, M.D., FAAP, of Fayetteville, Ga., who will serve as president in 2020. To read about Dr. Beers' background, visit <http://bit.ly/DrBeers>.

For the first time, voters also chose three members to serve in the new AAP Board of Directors at-large positions:

- Constance S. Houck, M.D., M.P.H., FAAP, of Boston;
- Charles G. Macias, M.D., M.P.H., FAAP, of Houston; and
- Joseph L. Wright, M.D., M.P.H., FAAP, of Upper Marlboro, Md.

Results for additional AAP national offices, which take effect Jan. 1, 2020, are below. Watch AAP News for additional coverage of the election.
