37

38 Dr Smith and Prof Jones conceptualized and designed the study, drafted the initial 39 manuscript, and reviewed and revised the manuscript.

40

41 Drs Noble, Eccleston, and Piper and Ms Johnson designed the data collection instruments,
42 collected data, carried out the initial analyses, and reviewed and revised the manuscript.

43

44 Dr Green conceptualized and designed the study, coordinated and supervised data
45 collection, and critically reviewed the manuscript for important intellectual content.

46

47 All authors approved the final manuscript as submitted and agree to be accountable for all
48 aspects of the work.

53
54

55 INTRODUCTION

56 A brief paragraph summarizing the context of the report and any hypotheses. This is my 57 manuscript's main body. It's in double-spaced, Times New Roman font, size
58 12.¹ This is my manuscript's main body. It's in double-spaced, Times New Roman
59 font, size 12.²

60

61 METHODS

62 A concise description of the study design and approach. All studies that involve human 63 subjects must be approved or deemed exempt by an official institutional review board; this
64 should be noted here. This is my manuscript's main body. It's in double-spaced, Times
65 New Roman font, size 12. This is my manuscript's main body.³ It's in double-spaced,
66 Times New Roman font, size 12.⁴

67

68 RESULTS

69 A concise description of the findings. A combined total of two tables or figures can be 70 used. This is my manuscript's main body. It's in double-spaced, Times New Roman font,
71 size 12.⁵ This is my manuscript's main body. It's in double-spaced, Times New Roman 72 font, size 12.^{6 7}

73

74 DISCUSSION

75 A concise summary of how the findings influence the understanding of the topic. The 76 limitations should be clearly described. Special attention should be on the implications
77 and next steps that are needed beyond a statement that more research is needed. This is my 78 manuscript's main body.⁸ It's in double-spaced, Times New Roman font, size 12.^{9,10}

Acknowledgments [Optional]

Thank you to Dr. Jane Doe for her review of the manuscript. Thank you also to the research group at College University Medical Center for their contribution.
